Hello,
I'm John Brunsten,
Director of ETC. I spent many years working overseas.
I then decided to "bring the world
to New Zealand"
by establishing the ETC English language school.

English Skills Short Course Study

Up to 12 weeks study, reading, writing, speaking and listening. Full-time or Part-time study. Visitor visa required.

High School Holiday

During school holidays we offer classes Monday to Friday 9am to 3pm. Classes require a minimum of students to go ahead. Classes can be English only or a mix of English and activities.

High School English (after school)

Depending on demand we offer classes from 3.30 pm to 5 pm twice a week. These classes help students to understand and complete homework. Develop English communication skills for Teenagers. Develop an understanding of English vocabulary used in New Zealand classrooms. These options are available at all campuses. A minimum number of students are required for classes to go ahead.

Demi Pair Training Scheme

- Gain International experience in a childcare position
- NZ Child First Aid Certificate
- NZQA Approved English and Demi-Pair Certificate
- Ongoing support and advice throughout the programme from the Demi-Pair Coordinator

Students on this programme study English in the morning for 15 hours a week, and learn childcare practices with their host family in the afternoons, evenings and the weekend for 15 hours a week. Students will typically help the family with childcare, meal preparation, light housework (laundry, dishes, vacuuming etc.), school pickups and drop off.

There are five childcare assignments to complete in order to receive a certificate. Some students may be able to be paid for additional hours. No fee is payable for accommodation or for meals as the students are required to live in the family home.
